

Royal Seal of Approval

We were delighted when The Princess Royal officially declared our new Livery Hall open for business on 8th September 2015. On the day, The Princess Royal met the Court of the Farmers and the Court of the Fletchers. She was also introduced to the opening team, which included our interior designers, our award winning chefs and catering team, plus a team of specialists in branding, marketing, sales and public relations. She also toured the building expressing an interest in all of the finer detail.

VENUE AWARDS
2015

FINALIST
Best Livery Hall

Shortlisted as a finalist in the Best Livery Hall category

Only one month after opening our doors we were recognised by the London Venue Awards and shortlisted in the Best Livery Hall category. The London Venue Awards recognise excellence and exceptional quality offered at different types of venues in London. As you can imagine we are justifiably proud of our achievement and wanted to share the news with you.
