LIVERY NEWSLETTER

Royal Seal of Approval

We were delighted when The Princess Royal officially declared our new Livery Hall open for business on 8th September 2015. On the day, The Princess Royal met the Court of the Farmers and the Court of the Fletchers. She was also introduced to the opening team, which included our interior designers, our award winning chefs and catering team, plus a team of specialists in branding, marketing, sales and public relations. She also toured the building expressing an interest in all of the finer detail.

FINALIST
Best Livery Hall

Shortlisted as a finalist in the Best Livery Hall category

Only one month after opening our doors we were recognised by the London Venue Awards and shortlisted in the Best Livery Hall category. The London Venue Awards recognise excellence and exceptional quality offered at different types of venues in London. As you can imagine we are justifiably proud of our achievement and wanted to share the news with you.

Christmas lunch

Wednesday 2nd, 9th and 16th December 2015. Book now!

We will be serving a traditional Christmas Lunch on Wednesday 2nd, 9th and 16th December from 12 noon to 1.00pm and all Livery members are most welcome. Start with a glass of bubbly and then sit back and enjoy. Expect a traditional feast of Scottish smoked salmon, Norfolk Bronze turkey with all the trimmings and of course Christmas pudding or a cheese board. Polish it off with mini mince pies and a Christmas tipple. Three mouth watering courses for just £49. Places are limited and are by reservation only.
