WHAT OUR CLIENTS SAY ABOUT US

"Our chairman suggested we take a look at Farmers & Fletcherers in the City because of its reputation and the obvious connection with the British farming community."

A recent successful event held in the Court Room was a lunch for 16 members of the 75 Club, a private dining club set up in the 1950's for agricultural guidance and includes farmers from around the country and overseas.

Matt Swain is responsible for selecting the venues for the members' lunches, which take place at a variety of locations and top London restaurants.

EATING WITH THE SEASONS - BRITISH BEEF

At this time of year as we enjoy the vibrant colours of Autumn, we are aware that Winter is lurking on the horizon. And with the change of season our tastes buds change too. We tend to turn to recipes that can take advantage of what seasonal produce our British farmers can offer, and there is nothing better than quality British beef accompanied by the new season of fantastic winter vegetables.

HOW DO WE PAIR OUR WINES WITH SEASONAL FOOD?

To accompany a delicious Boeuf Bourguignon, our wine expert has selected a classic red wine from France, Bourgogne 2011, Domaine Joseph Voillot, Burgundy, Bin 639.

Burgundy is one of the world's classic wine regions and is the home of Chardonnay and Pinot Noir.

ANCIENT SPICE PRODUCTION NOW THRIVES AGAIN IN THE UK THANKS TO ONE ESSEX FARMER

At Farmers & Fletcherers in the City we take great pride in our long-standing connection with British farming. We support the best of British farming in every way we can.

In this issue we would like to celebrate the success of one farmer who has just become the winner of the Essex Food & Drink Hero Award 2017. The award recognises an individual who has made an outstanding contribution to the Essex food industry, the winner was David Smale, who turned a hobby into a reality by reviving the art of saffron growing to the UK.
